

1 Rule 101. Motion practice before court commissioners.

2 (a) Written motion required. An application to a court commissioner for an order shall 3 be by motion which, unless made during a hearing, shall be made in accordance with 4 this rule. A motion shall be in writing and state succinctly and with particularity the relief 5 sought and the grounds for the relief sought.

6 (b) Time to file and serve. The moving party shall file the motion and attachments 7 with the clerk of the court and obtain a hearing date and time. The moving party shall 8 serve the responding party with the motion and attachments and notice of the hearing at 9 least 14 calendar days before the hearing. A party may file and serve with the motion a 10 memorandum supporting the motion. If service is more than 90 days after the date of 11 entry of the most recent appealable order, service may not be made through counsel.

12 (c) Response; reply. The responding party shall file and serve the moving party with 13 a response and attachments at least 5 business days before the hearing. A party may 14 file and serve with the response a memorandum opposing the motion. The moving party 15 may file and serve the responding party with a reply and attachments at least 3 16 business days before the hearing. The reply is limited to responding to matters raised in 17 the response.

18 (d) Attachments; objection to failure to attach.

19 (d)(1) As used in this rule “attachments” includes all records, forms, information and 20 affidavits necessary to support the party’s position. Attachments for motions and 21 responses regarding alimony shall include income verification and a financial 22 declaration. Attachments for motions and responses regarding child support and child 23 custody shall include income verification, a financial declaration and a child support 24 worksheet. A financial declaration shall be verified.

25 (d)(2) If attachments necessary to support the moving party’s position are not served 26 with the motion, the responding party may file and serve an objection to the defect with 27 the response. If attachments necessary to support the responding party’s position are 28 not served with the response, the moving party may file and serve an objection to the 29 defect with the reply. The defect shall be cured within 2 business days after notice of the 30 defect or at least 2 business days before the hearing, whichever is earlier.

31 (e) Courtesy copy. Parties shall deliver to the court commissioner a courtesy copy of 32 all papers filed with the clerk of the court within the time required for filing with the clerk.
33 The courtesy copy shall state the name of the court commissioner and the date and 34 time of the hearing.

35 (f) Late filings; sanctions. If a party files or serves papers beyond the time required in 36 subsections (b) or (c), the court commissioner may hold or continue the hearing, reject 37 the papers, impose costs and attorney fees caused by the failure and by the 38 continuance, and impose other sanctions as appropriate.

39 (g) Counter motion. Opposing a motion is not sufficient to grant relief to the 40 responding party. An application for an order may be raised by counter motion. This rule 41 applies to counter motions except that a counter motion shall be filed and served with 42 the response. The response to the counter motion shall be filed and served no later 43 than the response reply. The reply to the response to the counter motion shall be filed 44 and served at least 2 business days before the hearing. A separate notice of hearing on 45 counter motions is not required.

46 (h) Limit on hearing. The court commissioner shall not hold a hearing on a motion 47 before the deadline for an appearance by the respondent under Rule 12.

48 (i) Limit on order to show cause. The court shall issue an order to show cause only 49 upon motion supported by affidavit or other evidence sufficient to show probable cause 50 to believe a party has violated a court order. The court commissioner shall proceed in 51 accordance with Utah Code Title 78, Chapter 32, Contempt.

52 (j) Motions to judge. The following motions shall be to the judge to whom the case is 53 assigned: motion for alternative service; motion to waive 90-day waiting period; motion 54 to waive divorce education class; ~~motion for entry of default judgment~~; motion for leave 55 to withdraw after a case has been certified as ready for trial; and motions in limine. A 56 court may provide that other motions be to the judge.
